Meet Ali

Ali primarily focuses on representing individuals, investors, and property owners with purchases and sales of residential homes, multi-family, condominiums, and commercial buildings.

Born and raised in Canada, Ali is fluent in French and Haitian Creole.

Outside the Office

Ali lives in Sterling with his wife Nicole and their daughter Camille. In their free time, they enjoy exploring New England, trying new restaurants, cooking as a family, and spending time with family and friends.

Background

Before joining the team at Ligris, Ali worked at a boutique real estate law firm based in Chelsea, MA. He started his legal career in New York City, where he worked at a large legal service organization and in private practice, where he handled a broad range of real estate and civil litigation matters.

Why Ali?

The opportunity to join an industry leader that is forward-thinking and committed to exceptional service.

Learn from Ali

Ali regularly presents at first-time homebuyer seminars for several community organizations throughout the Greater Boston area.
