Meet Erin

Erin primarily focuses on representing buyers and sellers in the financing, sale, and purchase of residential real estate.

Outside the Office

Erin spends most of her free time with her husband and their cocker-spaniel mix puppy, Casey. Erin loves visiting her family on Long Island, she enjoys traveling, and she is an avid skier.

Background

Before joining the team at Ligris, Erin worked at a large law firm in Boston where she represented corporate clients in complex mergers and acquisitions, financing transactions, and corporate governance matters. Erin's experience working on corporate transactions strengthened her attention to detail during contract drafting and negotiating, and it helped her develop the skills necessary to resolve the variety of issues that arise in various types of transactions.
