Meet Evey

As the founder of the Family Law Division at Ligris, and with a vision to transform how sensitive family matters are handled, Evey built a dynamic practice from the ground up—building a high-performing team, developing cutting-edge protocols, and client-first strategies that help families navigate crisis with clarity and compassion. Evey is a trusted advocate in the field of family law, known for her thoughtful, client-focused approach and her ability to deliver tailored solutions in even the most complex domestic matters. Clients value Evey's honesty, precision, and steady guidance—whether in negotiation or litigation. Her reputation is built on delivering results with integrity, clarity, and care. Her approach balances deep legal insight with empathy. She strives to help clients feel understood, secure, and equipped—not just legally, but emotionally—through some of life's toughest transitions.

Background

Born in Greece and fluent in Greek, Evey brings a global perspective to her practice and a deep appreciation for the diverse backgrounds of the families she serves. She began her legal career at Gargas & Associates, a prestigious boutique family law firm. Prior to joining Ligris, Evey was a partner at Casner & Edwards. Evey is actively involved in shaping the future of family law as a board member of the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts (AFCC), a leading international organization for professionals dedicated to resolving family conflict. She is a frequent speaker on topics like high-conflict resist-refusal / high conflict custody matters. Within Ligris, she contributes to advancing firm values through her work on the Diversity, Equity & Inclusion (DEI) committee and the firm's Community Engagement Committee.
