Meet Greg

Greg's practice is dedicated exclusively to estate planning, probate, and trust management for individuals and families. He assists with all levels of planning, from simple wills to complex multi-million-dollar tax minimization strategies using various trust products. He brings more than ten years of dedicated estate planning experience and expertise and focused customer service to Ligris clients at a competitive rate.

Outside the Office

Greg enjoys playing basketball, hiking, skiing, photography, biking, woodworking, guitar, and, most importantly, his friends and family. You can find him chasing his toddler around the beaches in Swampscott on the weekends.

Background
