Meet Stephanie

As a Senior Associate at Ligris, Stephanie represents buyers, sellers, and lenders in all phases of real estate transactions. Prior to her current role, Stephanie oversaw the closing operations department at Ligris and trained paralegals in pre-closing, closing, and post-closing capacities. She has extensive experience in residential lending, settlement, title, escrow, and closing processes.

Stephanie is fluent in Greek and a lifelong resident of Belmont, MA.

Outside the Office

In her free time, Stephanie enjoys traveling, nature, biking, the arts, and spending time with family and loved ones. She recently has taken up skiing, kitesurfing, and scuba diving (Open Water Certified in 2021). Stephanie likes traveling to Greece, especially when the season is at its low peak so she can spend time closer to her roots and family.

Background

Prior to joining the firm in 2008 as a legal assistant and then paralegal, Stephanie worked in mortgage banking for both a national and regional lender in an operations and operational management capacity. With over 20 years of in-depth experience in the mortgage field, Stephanie is recognized by her peers as an expert.
